

ATTACHMENT A CONFIDENTIALITY GUIDELINES

The CHO agrees to abide by all present and future federal and state laws and regulations and with all United Way of the Midlands procedures and policies relating to the collection, storage, retrieval, and dissemination of client information for the South Carolina Information Collaborative (SCIC) and will only release confidential client information with written consent of the client. Federal laws include, but are not limited to, the federal confidentiality regulations as contained in the Code of Federal Regulations, 42 CFR Part 2., regarding the disclosure of alcohol and /or drug abuse records and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), when applicable.

1. The CHO will only collect Protected Personal Information that is relevant to the SCIC and complies with the regulations governing the HMIS.
2. The CHO will provide a verbal explanation of the SCIC to clients and arrange, when possible, for a qualified interpreter, and/or make responsible accommodations for persons with disabilities to include sign language, Braille, audio or larger type. Note: This obligation does not apply to CHO's who do not receive federal financial assistance and who are also exempt from the requirements of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act because they qualify as "religious entities" under that Act.
3. The CHO will make a copy of the SCIC Privacy Policy, available to any client requesting a copy.¹
4. The CHO agrees to limit access to information furnished by the SCIC to its own employees specifically for the purpose of inputting or verifying client data and/or entering into the system records of services provided.
5. The CHO agrees to use due diligence and care in assigning staff to use SCIC. All such employees will be required to sign a statement of confidentiality, which includes a pledge of compliance (Attachment B). Each statement of confidentiality will be forwarded to and maintained by United Way of the Midlands. The User ID of the person who is entering information is a part of the computer record. The CHO will verify that the person is authorized to enter data into the system.
6. The CHO further agrees to furnish to United Way of the Midlands the names of all staff members who have access to SCIC information and certify that such staff is competent to have access to this information according to the provisions of this agreement. United Way of the Midlands may, at its option, disapprove access of the system to any individual.
7. The CHO shall be responsible for the maintenance, accuracy, and security of all of its homeless assistance records and terminal sites and for the training of agency personnel regarding confidentiality.
8. The CHO Executive Director must accept responsibility for the validity of all records entered by their agency. The Executive Director may designate an immediate subordinate staff member with supervisory responsibilities for verifying the accuracy of information. The CHO will provide United Way of the Midlands with the name(s) and title(s) of the staff member(s) authorized to supervise data entry personnel.
9. United Way of the Midlands reserves the right to immediately suspend furnishing information covered by terms of this Agreement to the CHO when any terms of this Agreement are violated or are suspected of being violated. Upon receipt of satisfactory assurances that such violations did not occur or that such violations have been fully corrected or eliminated, United Way of the Midlands in its sole discretion may resume furnishing such information.
